

Executive Summary

Axis8 Federal is a U.S.-based small business federal contractor providing high-level products and operational services supporting government agencies and prime contractors.

The firm operates with a compliance-first, performance-driven delivery model aligned with federal acquisition regulations and mission-oriented government environments.

Axis8 Federal supports federal procurement and operational needs through reliable coordination, disciplined execution, and structured performance oversight, ensuring contracting teams receive dependable support with minimal operational risk.

Core Capabilities

- Federal product procurement and operational supply support
- Government workspace and operational service support
- Procurement coordination and logistics management
- Mission-support service delivery for federal environments
- Contract-compliant operational support and resource coordination
- Structured quality assurance and performance monitoring

Why Axis8 Federal

- Federal-focused small business partner
- Compliance-driven operations aligned with federal procurement standards
- Structured quality control and oversight processes
- Reliable coordination and delivery model
- Clear communication and performance accountability
- Low-risk support for mission-oriented government environments

Federal Readiness

- Small Business | SAM.gov Registered
- Primary NAICS: 518210 — Computing Infrastructure Providers, Data Processing & Web Hosting
- Supporting NAICS: 541330 (Engineering Services), 541511
- Axis8 operates in compliance with FAR, DFARS, OSHA, EPA, NIST, and applicable federal standards.
- The firm is structured to support immediate award and efficient onboarding with minimal transition risk.
- Contact Axis8 Federal | (240) 815-0904 | contracts@axis8fed.tech | www.axis8fed.tech